The Lord's Prayer

A Moment of Silence

The Circle of Life

*Fear not that which is now,
Fear not that which is to come.
Life, Death and Being are as one,
It is a circle. There is no beginning and no end.
For that which is the beginning is the end of the other.
And that which is the end is the beginning of the other.
Surely the lessons of life are the wisdom of death.
Those that live in the knowledge of what the circle truly is have peace beyond measure.
